- 3) The Images were photographed by Scott Gilchrist, owner of Archivision Inc., and his associates, starting in 1994.
- 4) Some of these images may be under commercial license with other users or are available with a third party for commercial download and license, including royalty-free and rights protected use, which may restrict their use by others for a period of time and for a higher fee.
- 5) By infringing on this personal use / educational use License you may come into conflict with another authorized License.
- 6) Furthermore, by using the Images you download here for other uses other than educational and personal use, or purposely making them available for other non-educational uses by others, you may infringe upon additional rights, such as property and artist copyright rights where the owners of those rights may seek recovery fees from you directly for breaching this License and in accordance with your breach.
- 7) Should you wish to use the Images for editorial (newspaper, online article, magazine and the like) or publication use (book, printed or digital), for commercial (advertising) rights or other for-profit uses or if you are in doubt please contact Scott Gilchrist for a separate usage license and pay a separate fee as to be quoted and invoiced based on your usage needs at scott@archivision.com. For legal reasons Archivision has been advised to maintain a visible watermark. Please see the sample images on our website for an example of this watermark. Furthermore, an imbedded copyright statement is placed in the copyright notice field under File Info when viewed in Photoshop.

The licensee will in no way be liable for costs associated with copyright or release claims made against Archivision or against the Licensee so long as this License is not breached.

Confidentiality of Personally Identifiable Information. The Licensor agrees that no personally identifiable information, including but not limited to log-ins recorded in system logs IP addresses of patrons accessing the system, saved searches, usernames and passwords, will be shared with third parties, except in response to a subpoena, court order, or other legal requirement. If Licensor is compelled by law or court order to disclose personally identifiable information of Authorized Users of patterns of use, Licensor shall provide the Licensee with adequate prior written notice as soon as is practicable, so that Licensee or Authorized Users may seek protective orders or other remedies. Licensor will notify Licensee and Authorized Users as soon as is practicable if the Licensor's systems are breached and the confidentiality of personally identifiable information is compromised.

Online Terms and Conditions.
